PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Brenda Brush

Dear Friends,

Astrologically speaking, what a year we just had! There is more where that came from. Are you awake yet? If not, you will be. The Eclipses moving into cardinal signs, and Jupiter and Saturn in cardinal signs have already gotten us on our toes. Cardinal signs are all about action, getting things done, like yesterday. All four Cardinal signs are activated. This is your opportunity to change things that you have been sitting on for a long time. Some aspects of your life may have been taken for granted, not any more. Some aspects of your life may have been stagnant, not any more.

Last year we had Venus retrograde in opposition to Pluto. That was a process of cleaning, clearing and waking up to what Venus wants us to do. Venus wants us to update old priorities and set new ones.

Mercury went retrograde in August and September in opposition to Uranus. Mercury rules our mind, our daily routines, and how we give and receive information. Uranus creates uncertainty, wakes us up, then demands change.

Mercury went retrograde in November and December conjunct Pluto. This was going to make us focus on cleaning up our routines and getting our lives working in a more productive way.

So, everything is requiring attention now. You cannot ignore things that raise their heads, because it is time to get it done.

There is an interesting Full Moon coming February 23rd at 5 degrees Virgo 41 minutes. This Full Moon is opposing Uranus in Pisces. Breakthrough, breaking away, freedom from chronic problems, could all be the results of this lunation. Work, health or psychological problems that need change will have solutions at this time. This is one of those "Watch out for what you wished for" times.

Mercury will go retrograde from March 19th to April 12th in Aries, with a Solar Eclipse on April 9th in 19 degrees of Aries. It would seem that the Full Moon at the end of February is setting the stage for what we have to take charge of by mid-April.

We, at SFAA, have a wonderful itinerary for the rest of this year. For all those seekers of knowledge, you should be pleased with what we have to offer.

I appreciate all the support and help in making this happen. See you at the meeting.

Peace Be With You,
Brenda

SFAA LOGO TURNS TO GOLD

Around 1977 we created a logo for our group. We named our newsletter "The Keyhole," which signifies a peek through the keyhole for information that would make you more aware. The logo was then fashioned in such a way that it would look like an old-fashioned keyhole but would have all the symbols of planetary energy. A spiritual symbol that would represent our group but also be a very powerful symbol in its own right.

The top part is a crescent moon super-imposed over the circle of the sun: the symbols of soul and spirit. Then four rays coming down from that point form a pyramid. The rays represent four of the classical planets: Venus, Mercury, Mars and Saturn. At the point of the pyramid, the symbol for Jupiter represents "the quest."

Steve Jay has brought our logo to life by creating it in gold as a beautiful piece of jewelry to wear on a gold chain. We will have it at our meetings in case you would like to order one. You can make it more personal by having him put on gemstones of your choice, or you can even have it made in platinum.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Frank Signorella, C.A. NCGR, is a professional astrologer and numerologist. Through considerable research, Frank has developed a comprehensive system of locational astrology dating from Ptolemy to the present, with all the rules for gaining and losing power in a new locality.

His precise rectification technique for unknown birth times is notable. In addition, his work in elections of marriage charts, which enhance all positive synastry aspects and mitigate the negatives, is well known. Astrologers worldwide have expressed their respect especially for Frank's expertise in the correlation of astrology to numbers, specifically as evidenced in the Chaldean system of numerology, which is symbiotically related to astrology.

He has contributed numerous articles to many publications, including American Astrology, Geocosmic News, The Astrological Journal of Great Britain, TV Guide, Today's Astrogoer, the N.C.G.R. Journal, Welcome to Planet Earth, and Rome's Il Messaggero, as well as periodicals in India, Russia and South Africa. He is also featured in The Astrology Encyclopedia. Of particular note is "Power Stations" (Geocosmic News, 1985), a groundbreaking analysis of the correlation of the AIDS crisis with the entrance of Pluto and Saturn into Scorpio.

Frank served for six years as Publicity Chairman of the New York Chapter of the National Council for Geocosmic Research (NCGR) and 15 years on its teaching faculty. His many speaking engagements have included lectures at the United Astrology Congress (UAC) in Washington, D.C. (where he was the Specialties Track Coordinator), Rancho Rio Caliente Holistic Resort in Mexico, and the United Nations Committee in New York.

He is consultant to private and corporate clients, and has appeared on various radio and television programs, such as WBAI (where he participated in a three-part series on Astrology in Culture, the Arts, and Politics), WLIB, WWOR Superstation, WINS News Conference, Britain's Channel 4, and CNNfn. Presently, his work with clients focuses on natal chart analysis, relationships, forecasting, relocation and numerology.

Frank Signorella was born in Italy. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Hunter College, CCNY, and a Level IV certification from NCGR.

THE KING GIVES A PARTY

By Alice Kashuba

Jupiter (also known as Zeus) is stopping by this month to hold a party for his children, Sun, Moon and Mercury. Venus, the ruler of Libra, has agreed to be the hostess.

Apollo and Artemis (the Sun and Moon) were the children of Zeus and Leto, a minor goddess. Hermes (Mercury) was the child of Zeus and Maia, a Titan. Venus, according to myth, had no parents but rose from the sea.

On February 1st the Moon in Scorpio forms a last-quarter square. Jupiter is stationary/retrograde at 9:26 p.m. EST in Libra at 18 degrees 52'. Here we are again at a last-quarter place in the monthly cycle, letting us know it is time to gather our resources and move on. For this process we will get some help from Jupiter. The Fairchild symbol for Jupiter is A small child summoning the ancient gods.

The first person to arrive at the party is the Sun on February 7th at 7:03 a.m., forming a trine from Aquarius. The Sun sets goals based on the waters of life pouring from Aquarius' jug. Justice for all mankind is one larger goal. Jupiter provides the confidence, enthusiasm and abundance to pursue the vision.

Next to arrive is the Moon on February 8th at 3:07 p.m., also forming a trine from Aquarius. The Moon provides the motivation. But this is not a "full steam ahead" enthusiasm, since Jupiter is retrograde and the aspects are formed just before the New Moon, which takes place at 5:28 p.m.

The next day, Wednesday, is the first day of Lent. While Passover does not take place until April 24th, this is a time of year when we remember the sacrifices of others who made it possible for new life. Winter is ending and Spring is around the corner. This is also the first day of the Chinese New Year – The Year of the Rooster. Taoist Astrology calls this the Year of the Blue Phoenix "characterized by boldness, creativity, imagination and decision-making."¹ It is ruled by Jupiter. This period might provide time for doing a little dreaming. But beware, as this combination may find us doing lots of dreaming and not planning. Jupiter brings abundance but also excess.

It probably would be ok to dream for two days until February 10th when Mercury in Aquarius makes the trine to Jupiter. Time to start gathering information to support the development of the dreams and goals.

Finally Venus arrives at this degree of Aquarius on the 17th, bringing love and harmony to the party. This is just a few days after Valentine's Day, so love should be abundant.

According to Alice Bailey, Jupiter is the esoteric ruler of Aquarius. The children – Apollo, Artemis, and Hermes – visit just for a day to make their requests known but Jupiter will be around until the end of October, so there should be many gifts waiting for us along the way. The esoteric energies focus on inspiration, dreams, and the union of the lower mind Mercury and the higher mind Jupiter. Venus underscores the energy with love and values necessary for good relations, since we often cannot reach our goals without the help of others.

Find 18-19 degrees of Libra and Aquarius in your chart. What is in store for you? February is a good month for us to summon the gods to help us with our ideas.
