

FULL MOON JOURNAL

TOTAL LUNAR ECLIPSE

August 28, 2007
6:36 AM, EDT
4°46' Pisces Full Moon,
Virgo Sun

María Pascual

8-21-07

Eclipses are portals where time and space are compressed, where boundaries fade and solidity is tenuous at best. This fragility is typical where opposing energies overlap and interact. Each eclipse season the electromagnetic energies which anchor reality and memory shift and realign themselves, introducing a new pattern that lasts 6 months, until the next eclipse season.

Since Harmonic Convergence * (1987) time seems to move faster and faster, along with communication and daily activity, space seems compressed as well, our planet virtually shrunk by the internet, air travel, the media. We have been riding a seesaw of wildly fluctuating electromagnetic frequencies, increasing our awareness and vantage points. A dramatic example is the Tsunami of 12/26/04, after which the North Pole shifted two degrees.

According to the Mayan Calendar and its time encoded prophecies, we are accelerating in time, living out 1,000's of years in a couple of decades, culminating in a 13,000 year zenith on 11/28/11. At this same time, the earth's orbit is aligned with the Galactic Center (27° Sagittarius), indeed many cycles converge at the same point. Hopi and other traditions also describe this time as one where all our human drama is played out and we are reborn into a higher consciousness. This can mean many things to many people, but we experience, for example, that old habits and reactions no longer work... we notice that when we jump out into the void, magical things happen and we become transformed. To jump means to be willing to try new ways, to go beyond ourselves, to stretch beyond...WHY the magic? LIFE IS A RIVER: LIFE IS MOTION!!! As a society, we are suffering from a chronic illness of wanting to remain frozen, fixed in time. This is called security, part of a mechanical, Cartesian world view where reality is seen as static, predictable, preservable.

A patriarchal, left brain oriented system has resulted in a deep mistrust of the female creative energy, along with Nature. The feminine Yin energy, repressed for 6,000 years, is bursting out of the seams of the Earth...The lunar Goddess/Mother wavelength of blissful union with the Divine, immerses us in the watery inner world of our own spring. This is the infinite Essence of our being, our true nature, where we create our reality, within the lens of Imagination.

This is SUCH an incredibly crucial time: to declare your Power, to verbalize INTENTION. To redefine who you are, to trust your Heart, to find your inner gold, your Wisdom. Increasingly, we quickly manifest what we think, say, energize. What do you want to give power to??? Joy, health, love? Or fear, shame, anger? Every time we act, we are Choosing.

ACCEPT ALL OF YOU. THE LIGHT AS WELL AS THE DARK.

Though we live in a world of duality, we are not separate. WE ARE ONE. One with ourselves, with all of creation. Could you envision the magical changes that would occur in your lives if every day your Intention is to feel unity in all you experience? To not feed animosity or separateness?

So, are you Listening??? Are you in your Heart??? The veils of time are tenuous, thin like gauze...Up through the Fall Equinox, the Earth will rock in its convulsions of a new Birth. Our realities are being disrupted right and left...testing our limits. And our relationships are changing dramatically, being in the midst of Venus retrograde in Virgo, now back in Leo. Back to the heart. Venus cycles were crucial to the Mayans and their calendar. Venus is invisible and closest to Earth at this time when we review our relationships and what we value. On Sept. 8, it will reappear in the sky as the Morning Star, emerging from its darkness into light. At 16° of Leo. On Sept. 2 Saturn enters the earth sign of Virgo, marking another timetable for humanity. Mars and Uranus form an implosive square (90° angle) Sept. 3, adding a frenetic and urgent note for unprecedented change on all levels. Both planets are ruthless in their intent to expose false realities and replacing obsolete, rigid systems with space and fresh approaches.

So find time for self reflection, meditation at or near the eclipse. Create a peaceful place of beauty for yourself , light a candle. Go deeply inside,feel the Light that you carry, set your intentions. The techniques do not matter, but sincerity does.

FIND BLISS IN THE PRESENT MOMENT.
BE GRATEFUL AND FULL OF WONDER.

Accept and love and nurture YOU exactly as you are right now!

YOU ARE CREATING YOURSELF, now and always.

What world do you want to create???

Note: Astrological data & references will follow. I want to get this out before the lunar eclipse, and it takes me hours, days, to type. I'm still looking for a typist or transcriber, hourly rate, please call if interested.

Recommended reading: The Mayan Calendar and the Transformation Of Consciousness, Carl J. Calleman, 2004

For chart interpretations, classes and seminars, contact Maria Pascual, 305 675-1728. taraverde@juno.com

The lunar eclipse coincides with sunrise at Eastern Daylight Time. You can view the beginning eclipse 1-2 hours early, like 4:30am. Set your clocks or stay up all night, commune with the Moon in all its silver glory.

